

ROBERT KALDE

Robert Kalde is the Principal at Knight Lawyers. He has over 15 years experience in Building & Construction Law and is an Accredited Specialist in Commercial Litigation.

Rob understands the complex nature of litigation and construction processes and his wealth of experience in handling a broad range of disputes within the industry enable him to achieve optimal results and to deliver solution-focused and efficient advice to his clients.

At Knight Lawyers, Rob encourages an approach of breaking down complex concepts into simple, digestible advice to clients to address the bottom line issues.

Rob has successfully advised and conducted litigated matters in Sydney, Queensland, ACT and other States, covering a range of areas including but not limited to:

- * Litigation (including multi-party liability litigation)
- * Arbitration and Expert Determination
- * Mediation and Alternative Dispute Resolution
- * Contract Drafting
- * Recovery of payments due or damages under Contract
- * All aspects of the Building and Construction Industry Security of Payment Act (NSW) 1999 for both Claimants and Respondents
- * OH&S issues including fatalities onsite and major incidents

An effective advocate in mediation and arbitration, as well as litigation, Rob has successfully tried cases involving millions of dollars for construction defects, delay damages, breach of warranty, trade practices and a host of other construction and contract-related disputes.
